Senator Lucio authored the dangerous SB 2355, which would have expressly granted physicians and hospitals the ability to deny basic life-sustaining treatment to patients due to the patient's disability. Senator Lucio also rose on the Senate floor to speak against SB 2089, a top Pro-Life priority that would have protected vulnerable patients from imposed death by the anti-Life 10-Day Rule. The bill passed the entire Senate before being killed by House leadership.

Senate Bill 23 by Senator Lois Kolkhorst (R-Brenham):
 The Born-Alive Infant Protection Act

Ensures medical intervention and legal protection for children born alive after an attempted abortion.

Senate Bill 23 passed the Senate but the House version of the bill, House Bill 16, ultimately became law.
