West voted against guaranteeing basic protections and medical care for children who survive an attempted abortion. By this vote, West favored infanticide.

West voted for amendments clearly intended to weaken or undermine Pro-Life Senate Bill 22, which prohibited cities and counties from using local tax dollars to benefit the abortion industry. By voting against this Pro-Life priority bill, West publicly supported allowing cities and counties to continue using Texans' tax dollars to benefit the abortion industry.

Furthermore, West voted against prohibiting the remaining late-term abortions in Texas and opposed prohibiting discriminatory abortions. By this vote, West publicly endorsed deadly discrimination in the womb and late-term abortions.

Senate Bill 23 by Senator Lois Kolkhorst (R-Brenham):
 The Born-Alive Infant Protection Act

Ensures medical intervention and legal protection for children born alive after an attempted abortion.

Senate Bill 23 passed the Senate but the House version of the bill, House Bill 16, ultimately became law.
